Authority: Health Professions Act section 19; CDBC bylaws section 41(1)(e)

Background:

In accordance with Bylaws section 41(1)(e), an applicant for registration with the College must demonstrate good character.

This policy identifies the criteria used to determine evidence of good character for registration with the CDBC.

Policy:

- 1) An applicant applying for registration demonstrates good character by:
 - a) completing Good Character Evidence on the Application for Registration Form (Form #3), and
 - b) completing the Statutory Declaration in the presence of a Notary Public or Commissioner for Taking Affidavits, and
 - c) meeting the Criminal Record Check requirement established by the Ministry of Justice by submitting the Authorization form for a Consent to Criminal Record Check with their CDBC application.

- 2) An applicant applying for registration via a recognized labour mobility agreement demonstrates good character by:
 - a) providing evidence as noted above, and
 - b) CDBC receiving verification of the applicant's registration in good standing from the sending jurisdiction.
